Dear Bill:

Thank you for your note of 15 February and the enclosed letter from Mr. Zeckendorf. As Larry Houston mentioned to you, we have a difficult decision to make in the matter of a location for our building, and, in part, it is strongly affected by limitations of time.

Even if the Webb & Knapp plan goes forward, we have our own hurdles to cross with the various authorities concerned. However, if we should be allowed to plan on downtown Washington, we feel that we could move faster and more effectively by proceeding on our own.

There is no question, of course, but that any plan of ours, if we should join in with the Webb & Knapp plan, would have to be harmonious with it, if it is finally accepted as the official plan.

Please let me know if there are any developments that appear to be significant.

Sincerely yours,

MEMORANDUM FOR: THE DIRECTOR

I pointed out to General Donovan that if we were to consider going to the Ft. McNair location, it was important to know as soon as possible whether the Zeckendorf plan would go forward. I then said that in any case we felt it would be advantageous for CIA, if it moved at all, to move on its own with a direct appropriation rather than under the Auchincloss lease-purchase proposal. General Donovan said he would take this up with Mr. Zeckendorf, and his letter of 15 February gives Mr. Zeckendorf's agreement to our thoughts. I have drafted a proposed reply to make the record ~~quite clear~~ Recommend signature.
